

Common Core Writing Academy

Facilitating excellence in writing instruction!

SF-182 Using ELL/Native Mentor Texts One Day Training

Synopsis: This one day session provides participants with the knowledge of how to effectively utilize ELL/Native Mentor Texts during their writing lessons. Participants will practice using the Mentor Text structure for helping students emulate effective writing using relevant Native texts and those appropriate for English Learners. Participants will actually write their own pieces in order to fully understand the methodology to use in their own classrooms.

Target Audience: School staffs who serve ELL and/or Native Students, including teachers, para-professionals, coaches, and administrators.

Goals:

- Develop understanding of what mentor text use means for the classroom.
- Create confidence and comfort in ability to teach using ELL/Native mentor texts.
- Help teachers address the CCSS in Writing.

Outcomes:

- Understand how to implement writing instruction using ELL/Native mentor texts in the classroom.
- Understand how to use cultural writing as mentor text to create student engagement.
- Write original pieces that can be used as mentor text in the classroom.
- Increase teacher ability to provide quality writing instruction in the classroom.

For information regarding specific pricing and scheduling, please contact:
info@commoncorewritingacademy.com