SF-182 Using Graphic Organizers to Plan Writing One Day Training

Synopsis: This one day session provides participants with the knowledge of how to select and use graphic organizers to help students plan their writing in order to meet the writing expectations set forth in the Common Core State Standards. Participants will actually select and use graphic organizers to plan their writing. Then, they will write their own pieces in order to fully understand the methodology to use in their own classrooms.

Target Audience: School staffs, including teachers, para-professionals, coaches, and administrators.

Goals:

- Develop understanding of how to select and use graphic organizers to plan Common Core aligned writing in the classroom.
- Create confidence and comfort in ability to select and use appropriate graphic organizers.
- Help teachers address the CCSS in Writing.

Outcomes:

- Understand how to implement graphic organizer planning in the classroom.
- Plan and write original pieces that can be used as mentor text in the classroom.
- Increase teacher ability to provide quality writing instruction in the classroom.
